Introduction

Drummochy is one of our four self-catering lodges, opened in September 2014. Situated in the picturesque seaside village of Lundin Links, it is at the gateway to the beautiful East Neuk of Fife. The lodge has stunning views across Lundin Links Golf Course and Largo Bay on the Firth of Forth towards Edinburgh and East Lothian. The local village shops, pubs and restaurants are only a few hundred yards away (5 minutes at a slow walking pace). The lodges are also beside the local play park, bowling club, and sports club/ tennis courts. Within half a mile there is a local sailing club, award winning beaches of Largo Bay and the Fife Coastal Path.

Also on site, is our community hub, the Paxton Centre. You can come in for a coffee and take in the spectacular views or treat yourself to a relaxing massage or inclusive exercise classes. A cafe operates on Mondays and Wednesdays offering a reasonably priced lunch.

The largest of our purpose-built lodges, 'Drummochy', can sleep up to 8 people in 4 bedrooms. On the ground floor there is an open plan kitchen/ dining/ living area with double patio doors leading out onto a screened patio area and communal lawn.
